

THE OPRAH
MAGAZINE

MARCH 2016

MAKE ROOM FOR A NEW YOU!

Clear your closet, lighten your load

“

YOU HAD ME AT ELONGATING

"I knew I'd like this outfit the minute I saw it. The pencil skirt hits in a good place; the top is forgiving; the monochromatic color is elongating; and, if I closed my eyes, I'd swear I was wearing pajamas."

“

SNEAKING AROUND

"Aren't platform sneakers fantastic?! I'm also big on mixing high and low—like this Brunello Cucinelli cardigan with these pants from Chico's."

Cardigan, $1,345; brunellocucinelli.com. Top, Majestic, $135; bloomingdales.com. Pants, $89; chicos.com. Wedges, Chanel, $975; select Barneys New York stores.

Sweater, $595, and skirt, $995; urbanzen.com. Earrings, Daniel Espinosa, $450; shopdanielespinosa.com. Bracelets (from left) $2,970; vaubeldesigns.com. RLM Soho, $50; robertleemorris.com. Ring, $285; bounkit.com. Booties, Pour La Victoire, $260; Bloomingdale's, 800-232-1854.

Lightening Up

Clearing your closet can be a joy, not a chore, says June Saruwatari, author of Behind the Clutter: Truth. Love. Meaning. Purpose. "It's a way to know yourself on a deeper level by thinking about what you really want and need. You're making space for whatever life is going to bring next. If you don't love something, set it free. It's going to make someone else feel like a million bucks."